the Spice of Life

Variety is the spice of life—a used but true cliché. Just imagine what life would be like if everyone looked the same, thought the same ideas and had the same tastes. Boring!! Although variety brings clashes and conflict, it is a small price to pay for the unusual and unexpected quirks that make life unique. The variety section is a new addition to the yearbook that hopefully will add a little sampling of what will always be a part of those college memories. So turn the page, relax and enjoy the variety.

A Day In The Life Of...

Most of us take for granted our college lifestyle and fail to realize the differences that exist between the types of students. If you could spend a day in the life of a commuter, a non-traditional and a resident student and experience their daily routine, the differences would be clearly evident. Take, for instance, breakfast time. A commuter must wake up early enough to prepare and eat breakfast, and still allow for enough driving time. Many times the non-traditional student has to make breakfast for other family members and also clean up afterward before leaving for class. The resident, however, can simply roll out of bed, get dressed, and head out to the dining hall a mere half an hour before classtime. It is these little things that account for the contrasts in lifestyles.

On these two pages, you can get a glimpse of what it would be like to walk a school-day in the shoes of a commuter, a non-trad and a resident. Special thanks go to Cindy, Steph and Bree for allowing us to invade their lives for a day and share it with you.

Quotes

Question:What is the best and worst things about being a commuter, a non-trad and a resident?

Cindy: "The best thing is not being dependent on York College and the worst is finding a parking space."

Steph: "The best is being able to fulfill a dream I've always had and the worst part is that it takes time away from my husband and children."

Bree: "The best is being able to get up late and still make it to class on time and the worst is not having any good home-cooked food."

Since You Were Gone

After the 1989 spring semester, construction began on the two newest campus additions. This massive project entailed the building of a parking plaza and new Tyler Run Apartments. Ordinarily, an undertaking of this size would take close to a year to complete. However, they were erected in four months. The plaza doubled the parking capacity for that area. The combined cost totalled in excess of three million dollars.

Look What's Changed

For years students, faculty, and visitors could not understand York's classroom numbering system: You could find room #78 next to room #142. Due to building additions on sloping ground some rooms were caught a half a flight between others. Thus, there seemed to be no rhyme or reason to the system. Year after year students would ask to have the numbering system straightened out. Unfortunately, the only response was signs being posted to try to clarify the haphazard room numbering. But, with the addition of the Business Administration Center, Mr. Melato and Dean DeMeester mapped out a logical system. With this change, people can more easily find their way around classroom complex.

On The Verge Of Collapse

What a discovery!-when the swimming pool's secondary ceiling beams were uncovered, its primary beams were found to be rotted. Fragments of the secondary beams were peeling off and the lights were about to fall. To correct the problem new beams were installed. This involved painting, removing the floor work and assessing the damage done to the tiles. After redoing the pool, a $250,000 pool pack was installed. The pool pack acts as a giant dehumidifier, drawing out the moisture and chlorine while pumping heat back into the room. With these renovations, YCP's pool should not require any further work in the years to come.

Revamped!!

With constant overcrowding and jammed, packed meetings, the Student Senate needed either a new set-up or a bigger room. In response, Dr. Iosue met with architects who then drew up plans to renovate the room. Paid for by the Student Union Fund consisting of receipts from video games, vending machines and photocopyers, the "new" William Walker room has met with favorable responses.

A Typical

FOOD-
No matter how old you are, moms still think you're underfed. Without homemade and commercial food, it is not a genuine care package.

MONEY-
Unfortunately the amount of money enclosed is never enough, but every little bit is greatly appreciated.

Care Package

LETTERS, CARDS AND MAGAZINES-
Sentimental letters, humorous cards, stacks of magazines, and clippings from your hometown newspaper are guaranteed to provide reading material for the semester.

ASSORTED KNICK-KNACKS-
To fill the box, t-shirts, tiny stuffed animals, and little gadgets are crammed into any available space.

CAMPUS CANDIDS

Corey Rimel

According to Straight

Direct quotes from our president regarding some commonly

Is 17405 or 17403 York College's correct zip code?

"I raised the same question about two years ago because I live on campus and mine is 17403. They said well, residential is 17403 but because the college has a post office box number it's 17405. Then they checked into it further and said they no longer use the 17405. You'll notice all of our stationery is 17403 and now we only use that one."

Is there such a rule concerning the amount of time to wait on a professor?

A

"Not officially- now that's the quick answer- not officially. There is a tradition throughout the country, which is not binding for anybody, and it goes something like this- you wait five minutes for an instructor, you wait ten minutes for an assistant professor, fifteen minutes for an associate professor and twenty minutes for a professor. Now it is not binding and nobody adheres to it, okay, but that used to be when I went to college and it's still bandied about. No it's not in any manual; it's a tradition that you wait, a courtesy, you know, his car could be broken down or her car could be broken down. There's a guideline, you wait ten or fifteen minutes then you poke around the corner and see if he's coming or something like that."

Why isn't there a car bridge across the creek?

A

"Well, initially the road was put in a long time ago so I don't know the original thinking. But then questions were raised about why not put a bridge in now? I do know that when we put in the Campbell Bridge, the foot bridge, the Corps of Army Engineers got involved and about fifteen different state and federal agencies. They have such tight restrictions that to put one in that would carry automobiles today would probably go well beyond the gym in size and we would have to do so many things that it would be financially not feasible. Now, number two, and I think it's as good a reason, is that more students prefer not having a bridge because they love to drive through it. They love to wash their cars in it and they like to claim that we're one of the few colleges in the country that has a little river flowing right down through the middle of the campus and you have to drive through it. So it is an attraction, the way it is now rather than having a bridge."

Dr. Iosue

From the Top

asked questions about York College of Pennsylvania.

Why is there only one foot bridge to cross the creek?

A

"It depends on what kind of access you want to have to the campus. While it's nice to open up the campus to non-students, there's also the problem of people inundating the campus and using the facilities and abusing the facilities so the students can't even use them. So while we allow the community people to use it, we really don't want to have it used so much that our students can't even use it, and we have had that problem in the past."

Why isn't the dining hall system updated?

A

"Don't you think we do things here to suit what we think will help the majority of students and still keep the cost down? Everything that suits a personal preference will jack the cost up. Like the plan for the dining room. Eat at Gettysburg and you will have all those choices and you will pay one and a half times as much. We've decided that we'll offer one plan- we broke down and offered another one (the lunch plan). We still managed to keep the cost down- but with every breakdown of the plan we'll have to jack the price up. It's a fact of life. Every accomodation that customizes something to suit what you want or what he wants or what I want always costs more. And that's what causes a lot of colleges to have $17,000 price tags. Then you find out that the accomodations are mostly physical and personal and not academic. And the professors aren't around anyway. Try to find a professor somewhere. I'll bet our college professors are more available than the average college professor, because that's the atmosphere. We try to accomodate on the academic side."

"Because it's important to take care of your body, to learn about the body and to do it over the course of your life. Why four credits? Well, why any number? Why twelve credits of this? Why twelve credits of English? Let me answer you truthfully. Honestly, I think you should be forced to take four classes of gym and you shouldn't get any credit for it because it's not academic, that is my opinion. The other side of it is, if you did start taking into account everybody's personal preference you'd have anarchy about what is the curriculum."

Backstage at the HORIZON

There are many "behind the scenes" people involved in producing this yearbook who deserve special thanks. First, our Jostens rep., Craig Rodabaugh, who is our link to publication. He gets extra thanks for withstanding Michelle's calls, demands, heckling and those infamous lists. Neil Weidman, our Davor Photo rep. is commended for always happily taking Corey's non-stop calls. To Neil and Davor studios--your services are priceless! Last and not least (just kidding) is our advisor, Laurie Reed. Although always busy, she fields our problems and gives us her input. To the three of you--thanks!

As any York College student will tell you, there are certain things that are so common place to college life, they tend to be overlooked. These familiar sights must always include, the colony of campus wildlife - SQUIRRELS! You are not a full-fledged student until you've made a trek to the Colonial Shopping Center and raided the MAC machine. Also, seen year round are people and their dogs, fierce ping-pong matches and bikes parked outside classes.

Campus Survey

And the Survey Says...

QUESTION: Do you like to drive through the creek or would you prefer a bridge to drive over it?

57 out of 100 students would prefer a bridge.

33 said they like the creek the way it is.

8 said they really do not care.

2 do not drive.

QUESTION: Which classes do you prefer M W F or T TH?

70 of the 100 students surveyed chose M W F

28 said they preferred T TH

1 person preferred night courses

1 person said that they really did not care

Question: If you could change one thing about this campus what would it be?

The total listing is to numerous to print so here are the top 6 answers. Coming in with 13 was the visitation rules. Running a close second with 12 was more events and activities. Tied with 8 were the cafe and the parking facilities. And finally, with 6 each were school spirit and the campus alcohol policies. One that said the cafe stated: "The food in the cafe (It #1@5!)" big time)

Question: In the dining hall which of the meals is the best?

Of the 100 students surveyed 37 either did not eat in the cafe or did not respond. The remaining number of students overwhelmingly chose lunch as the best meal with 42. Breakfast was second with 19 and dinner was left with only 2.

Tom Baum Jr.

Question: Where is the best place to order out?

The three top responses were: In third place with 11 was Subs to Go, second was Little Sal's with 12 and the number one place to order out with 44 was of course, Dominos Pizza. Some of the others mentioned were Little D's, Subs Unlimited, Subway, Bubba's, and Pizza Hut. All of these came in with less than ten.

Tom Baum Jr.

Question: What is the best food sold in the Spart's Den?

29 out of the 100 either do not eat in the Spart's Den or have no opinion. The top food item ended up being cookies with 12. Tied for second was french fries and the bacon cheeseburger with 11 each. From there the numbers all dropped below 10, some of those were items like; hamburgers, the chicken sandwich, nachos, and pizza.

Question: Whom would you like to see visit YCP this Year?

48 people of the 100 surveyed said that the would like to see a music group of some type. Some of these groups were U2, Erasure, Bad English, Grateful Dead, The Cars, and Def Leppard. The second choice was the "I don't care." or the "no preference" group they scored 23 out of 100. 13 YCP student said they want a comedian to come to York, and some of those responses were: Bill Cosby and "Dice" Clay.

Corey Rime

Question: What is your favorite activity on campus?

Coming in with only one person choosing each of the following: theatre, RA programs, aerobics, the parties, dances, sleep, security, and women watching. Scoring 2 was music and those that scored 4 were the radio station and greeks. Next was those people who have no preference and like all of the campus activities. Movies and the comedy shows each scored 6. Organizations scored 8 and in the third place with 11 were the people that simply did not respond to the question. 12 of the 100 surveyed love to stand up and shout "BINGO", yes bingo was second. Finally, scoring 34 out of 100 was our number one response, and that response was the sports programs at York.

Question: What is the main reason you chose to attend YCP?

The small size was the number one answer to this question scoring 38 out of 100. The second response was the cost, only 15 people were attracted to York due to the cost, and tying for the third place was the location and the curriculum both scored 13 of the 100 surveyed.

Question: Overall, who do you feel is the best professor?

I will only list here those professors that scored 2 or more, because we recieved numerous responses to this question. Scoring two on our survey was: Peterman, Deiner, Bittner, Hertig, Terry, Hosch, Wemer, and Himmelberger. Polk and Barr both scored 3 on the survey. Mrs. Merkle, N. Joseph, Mundy and Blake all scored 4. Katherman came in with a solid 5 and holds the number one position on the survey. Congratulations to Mrs. Katherman.

A Fascinating Idea

When the special plate program got started about four years ago Tom O'Conner began thinking about York College joining the ranks of these other schools. Now I guess your thinking four years? Yes, that is how long it has taken him to get only 468 names. For an organization to be able to get a special plate, they must have 500 names. Once O'Conner can get the 500 names, then he must mail out a questionnaire, asking for current information, to every person that is on the list. Once he gets all 500 confirmations and $20 back they then can send them to the state. People who have moved out of the state are no longer eligible for a special plate. That brings us to the question who can get a special license plate? Well any alumni, current students, faculty, administration, anybody in the York College "family."

The plates will not serve as a marketing ploy to entice new students but they will create more school spirit. "The plates are a matter of pride and visibility," says O'Conner. The plates will put York College in a group of schools that have had a name recognition for a lot longer such as Penn State, Temple, LaSalle, and Lehigh. All these schools at one time or another were ranked in Division I or II sports nationally. That is one characteristic common among all of the schools that have plates. At York College it is a matter of pride.

York's Rockman

Dr. Kreiger is not your typical professor. This professor became interested in rocks as a young child. Like all young boys, he was fascinated not only by rocks, but also insects, trees, just about anything dealing with nature. He always enjoyed running around the woods just looking at all the different types of rocks.

When Dr. Kreiger first began to look into a profession, he wanted to become a chemist. He switched his thoughts when he went to Iceland and saw Mt. Hekla erupt. He used lava and other materials from this eruption as part of his masters thesis. Dr. Kreiger had the interests in geology but a professor from Syracuse University helped him along. During his career he has looked at many different types of rocks and minerals but his favorite mineral is Olivine. When it is seen under a petrographic microscope, it looks like a church stained glass window, full of many colors and shapes.

When Dr. Kreiger was asked where he would like to go on vacation he said he would like to return to Iceland and also go to England to see Stone Hedge. He said he would also like to see the Rolling Stones in concert. Dr. Kreiger enjoys music of every kind from African music to Rock 'n' Roll. He also likes to go to New York and watch Broadway plays although he hasn't gone lately.

When asked if he minds being called "Stoney" and "Rockman," he said that it didn't bother him. Maybe by people calling him that, people might become aware of the things we pass by everyday and don't even realize it. We should appreciate the world we live in and not ruin it in any way.

Shelly Merkle: The Athlete

Picture yourself swimming 2.1 miles, running 21 and on top of that, biking 50! Yea, right! Then picture Shelly Merkle doing this. Obviously, she would be able to finish when the average person would probably keel over!

Shelly has always competed well at the college level in swimming and running but was never a standout athlete. This is the type of person who, with some extensive training, will excel in triathalons.

In the Spring of 1981, Shelly began to compete in triathalons. She has even competed in national level competition in Easton, Maryland. The first time she competed, she was third or fourth in her age group with a time of nine hours and twenty minutes. The following year she had more training and did much better. She won her age group and set records with a time of seven hours and seventeen minutes. At this point she began to become very competitive.

Over the four years in the sport, Shelly has competed in approximately fifteen triathalons. Her last one being in 1985. To participate in triathalons, one must have large amounts of time to do extensive training. "You either do triathalons or you don't," says Shelly. It takes a lot of time. Right now Shelly is still trying to get back onto a normal schedule after having Joe Jr. nine and a half weeks ago.

Stacey "Bocephus" Hildebrand

What would you do if Hank Williams Jr. walked into your office right now? "Grab him!" says Stacy Hildebrand. Stacy's answer might seem strange to anyone who isn't familiar with her. Read on to find out why she would say this.

Stacy Hildebrand is the Office Manager/Secretary of Publications at York College and has been here for nine years. What makes her so unusual? Stacy has somewhat of an obsession with Hank Williams Jr.

Stacy's obsession began about five years ago when she saw Hank in concert at the York Fair. She thought his body and music were great and "fell immediately in love." Since then, Stacy has attended one more concert at the York Hospital Fete and one at the Baltimore Civic Center.

Stacy has just about all of Hank Williams Jr.'s records, a collection of about fifteen or twenty. She has a Hank Williams Jr. tire cover on her jeep and pictures of Hank decorate the closet door in her office. If that isn't enough, Stacy also has a soda can holder that reads, "If you don't like Hank Williams you can kiss my - - -."

Hildebrand's obsession does not end here. Stacy is a member of his fan club and would love to meet him in person. She even went so far as to put a Hank Williams Jr. headband on her baby when he was only four months old!

NATIONAL COLLEGE HONOR SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Alpha Chi is a coeducational society whose purpose is to promote excellence and exemplary character among college and university students and to honor those achieving such distinction. Its name derives from the initial letters of the Greek words ALETHEIA and XARAKTER, meaning TRUTH and CHARACTER. Founded in 1922, Alpha Chi now has over 270 chapters in forty-four states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. At York College only the top 5% of the junior class and the top 10% of the senior class are admitted to membership.

Amnesty International was founded on the York College campus in the fall of 1988 and was granted permanent status the next year. Amnesty is a worldwide organization which writes letters to the governments of other countries asking for the release of their prisoners of conscience. A prisoner of conscience is someone imprisoned only because of his beliefs. In addition, Amnesty works for the termination of torture and executions. The York College group receives Urgent Actions each month. These are special cases of disappearance, arrests or threats of execution. York Amnesty also has an adopted prisoner of conscience. We write weekly for Hristos Souras, a Greek Jehovah's Witness imprisoned for his military beliefs. York Amnesty will write for him until his release or his death.

Band

The York College Stage Band is dedicated to playing various styles of contemporary music such as straight-ahead jazz, bossa nova, samba, rock, and fusion. Part of the fun of participating in York College's Stage Band is derived from everyone's learning to improvise. The result is always surprising as well as satisfying.

This picture of the Jazz Combo represents the group that forms the nucleus of the York College Stage Band. Both groups play concerts throughout the year.

Orchestra

The York College Orchestra is an organization dedicated to providing a healthy environment for future musicians. Unfortunately, there are very few students who take advantage of this opportunity. This is a sad reality, for orchestra is a fun organi-

The York College Republican Club's main focus this year was the "Reilly for Mayor" campaign resulting in our advisor, Chris Reilly, being elected mayor of Dallastown. Club members also supported the elections of other local Republican candidates. We once again sponsored a voter registration drive in the fall, providing an opportunity for students to do their civic duty. Members got involved in the community by attending the Elizabeth Dole dinner, participating in the Alumni Phone-A-Thon, representing the club at the National College Republican Convention in Nashville and sponsoring the Spartan in their "Peddling for the Press" campaign. As a fundraiser, we sold candy. Having gained permanent status this year, the York College Republican Club is steadily getting off the ground.

One of its major fundraisers was raffling a Valentine's Day dinner for two. HISPO sponsored a lecture by professor Hans Goedicke on "the Exodus and Moses". Members of HISPO are encouraged to volunteer at the Historical Society of York County. The seminars distributed by the club are geared toward making important contacts in the political science and history fields. HISPO provides an atmosphere of friendly discussions, informative trips and the chance to meet people within your major, whether you aspire to be a historian, an educator, a government employee or even an "undecided". A year ago, not many people knew much about the Horizon Yearbook. We believe that has changed. This past year, we have strived not only to publish a quality, collegiate-level book, but to also become a more visible organization at York College. We have participated in a wide range of campus activities including Halloween Happenings, Intramurals, Alcohol Awareness Week, and Spring Weekend, just to mention a few. The Horizon is proud to have been recognized for our accomplishments by being an Honor Scoop finalist. Working toward a common goal-preserving an entire year of memories into one book-the Horizon staff draws together an extremely varied group of individuals. Strictly volunteer, anyone wishing to gain experience in journalism, design or photography is invited to stop by and discover more about the Horizon yearbook.

The International Students Club brings all foreign students at York College together under the umbrella of one unified organization. It also has the purpose of creating a relaxed atmosphere for better interaction with the American students and to initiate a dialogue for a better understanding and appreciation of one another's culture. Other objectives and activities of the club are to help the American students in the understanding of foreign cultures and languages by offering free tutoring and with guest speakers to discuss the current international situations. The International Students Club also sponsors field trips and social gatherings with other organizations to familiarize the foreign students with their new surroundings. The York College of Pennsylvania Intramural Department has been an existing body on campus beginning in 1977-78.

Since its origin the Intramural Department has offered the students at York College the chance to participate in competitive, safe, and fun sporting events without the practices, travel and pressure of Intercollegiate Athletics.

York College Intramurals offers a wide range of sports for both men and women. Such sports include basketball, softball, volleyball, water polo, flag football, soccer and floor hockey just to name a few.

Besides our regular season sports, the Intramural Department has special tournaments such as volleyball, tennis and badminton along with other contests like three point and foul shooting.

The Madrigal Singers will be coming back in the fall with a new name and a new objective. The Madrigals were a group dedicated to the performance of Renaissance and Baroque era music. They primarily performed for the holiday music program and the spring concert. Costumes of the era were provided to all members and worn for the concerts. Now, under the direction of Dr. Frederick Schreiner, the Madrigals will become the York College Chorale, a group of experienced singers dedicated to the study of choral music from all style periods. This past year the Madrigals performed under a blend of the old and the new objectives. For example, the spring group performed J.S. Bach's Cantata No. 4, "Christ Lay in Death's Dark Prison" and Franz Schubert's "Mass in G" in conjunction with the choir of the First Presbyterian Church.

Within those two years, the Rugby Club has become an officially sanctioned organization at YCP and has been granted permission to play on the campus field. This year has been a year of many changes for the YCP Theatre Company. It has basically been a growing year, as our membership has expanded greatly. Though we have been very involved in the different plays shown on the YCP stage, we have been more involved on the campus as a whole. Some of our productions included: the Reader's Theatre, "Talking With...", the one-acts, which were a series of three plays directed by students, and the musical, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." One of our biggest endeavors was forming an intramural softball team. Although the team hasn't exactly been the number one team, they have shown much improvement, and hopefully will be better in the future. However, they had a great time, and this is the most important thing. We look forward to a very successful future in the YCP Theatre Company.

The student athletic trainers at York College are the support system of the head athletic trainer. Under the head athletic trainer's supervision, they are responsible for helping to prevent athletic injuries, treat injuries and rehabilitate the injuries of the various sports teams. These students are very dedicated and spend long hours in an environment that demands that they learn a lot about athletic injuries and their care.

The student athletic trainers have the option of entering the internship program under the National Athletic Trainers Association guidelines, to become nationally and state certified athletic trainers or just to be a student trainer while at York.

The student athletic trainers play an integral part in the care athletes receive at York College. They enable the head athletic trainer to provide better care to all athletes.

After losing several student trainers to graduation, and Miss Sponsler being away for sabbatical last year, the staff was left with only one student athletic trainer, David Steele. Dave did a fine job this year and will be returning next year to a staff of eight student athletic trainers!

Alpha Sigma Alpha is the oldest national sorority at YCP. The Delta Omicron Chapter was founded on April 8, 1978. Presently, we have 22 active sisters and many dedicated alumni involved with activities. Our biggest project is Special Olympics. Saturday morning, sisters help with Special Olympics training sessions and in April is the Special Olympic Track and Field Day, where sisters act as huggers. In October, we collected canned food goods to donate to Hurricane Hugo victims. We participate in many community and campus services, as well as social activities which let each sister act as a member of the group as well as an individual. "Sisterhood is Friendship!"

Alpha Sigma Tau is the newest national sorority on the York campus. Formerly the sisters of Sigma Delta Rho, we went national in October of 1989. We strive to promote unity amongst ourselves and other Greeks. We are involved in many activities such as: The IFPC, Alcohol and Sexual Awareness Week, adopting a child from the Children's Christian Fund, sponsoring a Superdance for Muscular Dystrophy, and helping out at Rest Haven.

Our sorority has been busy this year with mixers, our annual Alumni Picnic, our Holiday Party, The Spring Ball, intramurals, and community services.

Our chapter has 41 active members who have promoted a successful year!

Chi Gamma Iota was formed November 16, 1967, making it the oldest Greek organization on campus. Chi Gamma Iota, known as the veteran's fraternity, was formed to provide veterans and non-veterans social unity and to help veterans adjust into a non-military atmosphere.

Membership to Chi Gamma Iota consists of veterans and full members and is available to all students, male and female. Chi Gamma Iota also has alumni and honorary members.

Members of the veteran's fraternity participate in many campus activities consisting of intramural sports, alcohol awareness week, and Greek week. They also take part in residence life staff, security, and the candy store.

Chi Gamma Iota sponsors various fundraisers and takes part in community activities. We help Easter Seals with Safe Halloween booklets, the annual daffodil sale, and a paper drive. We hold ceremonies for Veteran's Day, assist the Access House, and do food drives.

Formerly the local sorority Phi Sigma Chi, the colony of Delta Phi Epsilon was formed on February 19, 1989 at York College. The D Phi E colony hopes to become an active chapter by 1990. D Phi E participates in many community and campus activities. The sorority also supports the National Cystic Fibrosis Research and the National Association of Anorexia Nervosa. This sorority has a lot of different personalities that come together and develop everlasting bonds of sisterhood.

After a short "leave of absence" in the fall of 1989, Kappa Psi Epsilon graces York College Campus once again. This fraternity of brotherhood and excellence looks forward to their seventh Greek Week Championship. This is the dawning of a new decade and a new era for Kappa Psi Epsilon to succeed and excel. Known to many as the House of Sick, these young men are the carefully chosen members of an elite brotherhood of the few, the proud, and the sick.

Phi Kappa Epsilon

Phi Kappa Epsilon is a local sorority. Formerly little sisters of Kappa Psi Epsilon (Founded in 1981), we formed our separate organization in Nov. of 1988. Although Phi Kappa Epsilon is strongly independent, we still enjoy such traditions as annual Christmas parties and formals with KYE. The sisters of Phi Kappa Epsilon are proud of our involvement in campus and community activities. On campus, we sponsor many sales, participate in Greek Week, intramural sports, and attend special events on campus. The majority of our community service is for Easter Seals. We also fundraise for local charities, and do food and clothing drives. We often donate money to people of the community in need. Phi Kappa Epsilon is proud of the friendship and sisterhood between its members. We strongly believe in supporting and promoting the Greek system.

Phi Sigma Sigma is a newly established National Sorority. We were installed in November as the Epsilon Rho Chapter. Phi Sigma Sigma is 76 years old, with chapters all across the U. S. and Canada. This sorority is based on Non-Sectarian principles; we do not discriminate against race, religion, or economic status.

We are actively involved in social activities like mixers, Greek Week, and intramurals. This year, we took first in volleyball. We are also involved in philanthropic activities including walk-a-thons for MD, Daffodil Days for the Cancer Society, and blood drives. Our national philanthropy is the National Kidney Foundation. Epsilon Rho has weekly fundraisers for our Sapphire Ball.

We look forward to a great 1990 and we wish the best of luck to the new Executive Board and all returning and new sisters. To our seniors thanks for the good times and best of luck and love in the future. Sisterhood forever and Dlo-kete Hupsala!

This year has been very productive. For the past two years, we have been awarded the honor scoop. We have been involved with the popular Q-106 TKE volleyball marathon. Also we are involved in a keg roll with Millersville University's TEKES benefiting MD. These activities plus many more are a tradition of Tau Kappa Epsilon to benefit the community and the college. TKE is also very involved with the intramural program and is becoming very competitive in every sport. Tau Kappa Epsilon is a very large international fraternity, with over 400 chapters. We're here to give a positive and beneficial fraternal experience.

Zeta Delta Phi

Zeta Delta Phi was founded in 1982 which has grown from seven founding sisters to an active membership of forty. The purpose of our organization is to provide services for the campus and community, and to provide unity, friendship, and social activities for members. A few of our community services for this year were a Thanksgiving and Christmas Dinner for the Bell Socialization for the mentally handicapped, a daffodil sale for the Easter Seals, a weekly snack program, and a St. Patrick's Day Dance for the YWCA.

The sorority has had a very busy year with mixers, community services, and intramurals. We had a very productive 89-90 year.

Field Hockey

Transition was the word used to describe this year's team. There were eight new players and eighteen returning players, which made the field hockey team into one with quite a few new faces. Five seniors were lost which made the task of performing under pressure situations difficult, but even so this year's team did an admirable job.

Senior Michelle Gladfelter was captain of the field hockey team. Sharing the responsibility with Michelle as her co-captains were juniors Laura Johns, Jerolyn Hardy, Dana MacIsaac, and Paula Rusnock.

Some of this season's highlights were Michelle Gladfelter ending her season career setting the team record of thirty-three goals. The nine to zero win over Wilson was definitely one of the high points for the team. The team was kept in many of their games by the exceptional skill and ability of goalie Paula Rusnock.

Due to the number of rookies this season the skill level naturally dropped some, but there is good air of optimism for next season do to the number of junior varsity games that the field hockey team played. These gave the team the much needed practice and experience of team play.

Soccer

The York College Soccer Team finished the 1989 season one game under .500 with a final record of seven wins and eight losses. The Men's Soccer Team won the Lycoming Soccer Tournament after just two days of practice.

With five shutouts Mike Beyer was the teams leading goalie and with his co-captain Matt Walsh they lead the team in skill. Matt was also named the Most Valuable Player. Both of these players will be sorely missed. Senior Jim Wrona and senior Mark Fischer lead the team on the field. Jim was the most improved player this year.

York played with a powerful offense and a defense that would shut down the oppositions leading scorers and the other teams offense.

The 1990 soccer season is a reason for optimism because with joining the "Capital Athletic Conference" there will be more of an incentive for recruits and more spirit for conference games.

Volleyball

This was a year of experience and growth for Coach Mick Gilbert's chargers. The 12-20 record accumulated along the way does not reflect the competitive experience gained by this young team. This years team was plagued by their youth and numerous injuries, but their competitive spirit led them to the play-offs at the Gettysburg Tournament, a close four-game match with Elizabethtown, a MAC (Middle Atlantic Conference) semi-finalist, and a five-game match with the other MAC semi-finalist, Dickinson.

The volleyball team participated in four different tournaments this season. The first of these tournaments was the season opener, at Susquehanna University where the team placed fifth. Placing third at the Gettysburg Tournament, the team would later find that this was their best finish in a tournament this season. The team placed seventh in the Elizabethtown Tournament, and ninth in the Western Maryland Tournament.

The 1989 Women's Volleyball team was young with four freshman, three sophomores, and one junior. This youth was not wasted, but benefited from this experience. The entire team will return for the next season in pursuit of the first Capital Athletic Conference title.

Kelly Walsh and Jennifer Bell turned in stellar performances as first time middle hitters. Jennifer Champness, the team's captain, weathered many injuries this season to be the steady force and inspiration of the team. Freshmen Stephanie Smith and Joanna Schwering were the team's "one-two" punch on the outside attack, to cause many problems for their opponents.

Next season looks even more optimistic because the volleyball team has an 8-1 record against the other colleges in the new conference. That in itself should make the chances of successfully capturing the teams first title very realistic. It certainly looks as if the 1990 season will be very exciting for the team and its fans here at YCP.

Women's Swimming

The Women's Swim Team, coached by Kelly C. Barclay, had a final record of 1-11-1. It was a season of injuries, illnesses and intense class schedules. As the season went on, the roster diminished to five team members. Despite a disappointing record, the women were dedicated and supportive of each other. Sophomore Gretta Goodman swam an impressive season. Mid-season, she decided to change her events from backstroke to distant freestyle. She broke two team records in the process and broke two pool records in our competition against Juniata College. She finished the season at the Tri-State Swimming and Diving Championships at Virginia Military Institute. She placed second in the 1650 yard freestyle with a time of 19:02.99, a third place in the 500 yard freestyle with a 5:35.38 and she placed fifth in the 100 yard backstroke. Team Captain, Margaret Smith, swam to a twelfth place finish in the 100 yard backstroke. This was a building season with a group of enthusiastic women and the following years should be stronger.

The Lady Spartans consist of senior co-captain Sharon Erfft, who leads the team in assists. She is a 74% free throw shooter, with her career high of 28 points and her season high of 24 points versus Gettysburg.

The junior class is composed of three talented players. Tammy Blymire leads the squad in three point shots (six in one game), is an 80% free throw shooter. Her career high is 23 points and her season high is 18 points versus King's College. Tammy was picked as a member of this year's Lady Spartan Invitational All-Tournament team. Co-captain Jamie Floyd, an aggressive offensive player, is pumping in 15 points per game and grabbing 7 rebounds per game. Jamie has been picked as a member of several All-Tournament teams in the past. Paula Rusnock is the team leader in steals with four per game (ten in one game). She has a career high of 19 points and a season high of 15 versus Catholic and Gettysburg.

Sophomores Kristi Lewandowski and Damaris Ramos have been key players coming off the bench. Kristi supplies offensive strength while Damaris puts on the defensive pressure.

The freshmen class brings height to an otherwise small team. Judy James connects on 53% of her shots, averaging 15 points and 7 rebounds per game. Her season high is 24 points versus Gallaudet and Misericordia. Judy was named to the Millersville All-Tournament team. Deanna Preston shows great team spirit and gets the job done when duty calls. Finishing the roster on injured reserve are sophomore Michelle Iacono and freshman Jen Albert.

Men's Swimming

The 1989-90 season marked the return of the Men's Swim Team in more than four years. The team, coached by Kelly Barclay, only had eleven men but a mighty large competitive spirit. Captain Jim Ross lead the team to a record of 5-7. The win-loss record can be somewhat misleading in that three of the meets came down to the last event leaving the YCP men only point and one man short from a victory. The team did have its share of highlights as well. A strong bond was formed early in the season and was always evident at meets and in practice as well as across campus. The men broke seven of the ten pool records during the competition against Juniata College. The season ended with the Tri-State Swimming and Diving Championships at Virginia Military Institution. The 400 Medley Relay team of Jim Ross, Jim Stiles, Eric Withers and Jeff Jacobus swam to an eighth place finish. Most of the men achieved personal best times in their individual events. The team looks to next year with great enthusiasm because of active recruitment and the loss of only two seniors, Jeff Bauer and Eric Hoffman. High spirit and hard work made this a season of success.

Men's Basketball

The men's basketball team finished the season with twelve wins and fourteen losses. The Spartans encountered many close games especially in the last few games. Several of these games were decided in the final seconds of play. The team started slowly at first but rebounded with a flourish as they fell just short of achieving a .500 record. With this type of competitive play, there is much optimism for the 1990-91 basketball season to get underway. The team demonstrated a "never say die" style of play that made them appealing to watch late in the season. One of the key players was senior

Jeff Godboldte. Nearing the end of the season, Jeff scored his one thousandth point, assuring him a page in York College sports history. Jeff averaged almost sixteen points and eight rebounds a game and scoring an awesome 412 points this season alone.

Other standouts of the season were the versatile Mitch Morrison who set a YCP season individual record with fifty-one three point goals made, Tim Smith with 107 defensive rebounds, the explosive Mark Miller who averaged fifteen points a game, Jeff Mann's tough defensive play and Ray Deegan's competitive play.

Despite meeting much adversity, YCP's 1989-1990 grapplers finished the season with a respectable three wins and six losses. Among the season's highlights were an overwhelming 42-12 win over Rutgers-Camden, a nailbiting 22-21 victory over Western Maryland, a solid 31-16 defeat of Salisbury and a third place finish in the York Spartan Invitational II Tournament.

Several individual wrestlers had noteworthy seasons and deserve recognition. Senior co-captain Matt Ream had an undefeated dual meet record of 7-0 and won the Western Maryland Takedown Tournament.

Sophomore Bob Linker won the Spartan Invitational and was voted the tournament's outstanding wrestler. Also winning the Spartan Invitational was junior Chris Donovan who had the highest placed finish of any YCP wrestler at the NCAA Division III East Regional Tournament with a fourth place finish.

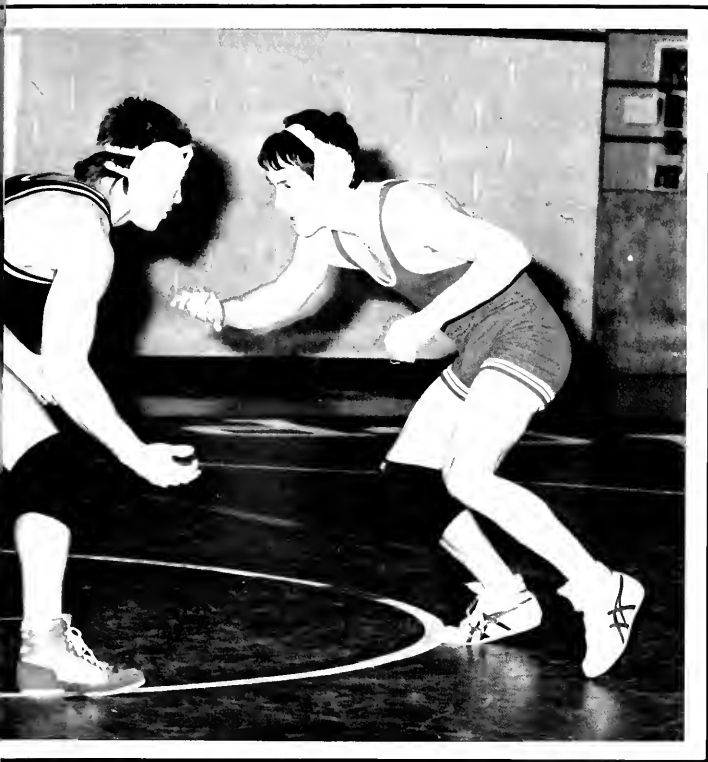

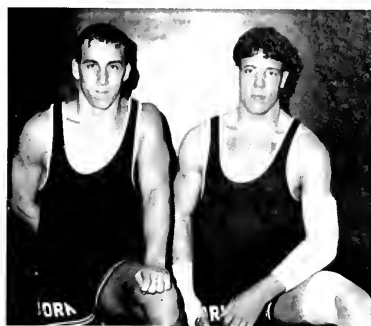

The majority of the squad's wrestlers had records of .500 or better. The history of problems surrounding this team has served to draw the team closer together as a unit, becoming more competitive. YCP wrestling is on the rise!

Rain and snow were responsible for the absence of eleven games. The 1990 MVP was senior captain Marty Burman. The team batting average was .315. Only one player will be leaving the team due to graduation. 1991 should be one of the best years for York College baseball in a long time.

The 1990 softball team started their season with two juniors, four sophomores and seven freshmen. Under the skilled direction of coach Wise the girls battled their way to a record of eight wins and nine losses, but due to the amount of rain this season three games were rained out; not fully allowing the girls a chance to win the season.

The captains this season were juniors Tammy Blymire and Jamie Floyd. Captain Tammy Blymire was named the team's most valuable player. Some of the team leaders were sophomore Vicki Jones with fifty times at bat. Jamie Floyd ended the season with the team's best batting average of .388. Jamie Floyd led the team with 17 runs scored and 19 hits out of the 49 times at bat. She also stole 11 bases this season. Vicki Jones and Jamie Floyd tied for the most runs batted in at ten.

This season was without doubt a building season for the team. The experience that was gained this year should prove to lead the ladies into a most rewarding season next year.

The women's tennis team posted a two to six record staging a comeback from a year ago when there was no team due to lack of interest.

Of this record, two of the losses were scores of four to five (Western Maryland and Notre Dame). The Lady Spartans' Notre Dame loss was by only one point in the final game of a three set match in the third singles. The other four to five loss against Western Maryland was the Lady Spartans' low-point. It was this match that solidified the premise that the women's tennis team would not have a winning record in 1989-90.

The high-point of the year was a strong win by Mary Meyer and Tracey Schriver in doubles play against Juniata's first doubles team. Juniata's team is presently the number two team in the Mid-Atlantic Conference North.

All but one of the Lady Spartans will return next year, providing a solid foundation for the 1990-91 team.

Cheerleading

The York College Cheerleaders are a group of multi-talented ladies. These energetic gals can be found at the soccer and basketball games tumbling, dancing, cheering and building pyramids.

The 1989-90 squad was composed of four returning veterans: squad captains - Karin Pfisterer and Lisa Feldmann, Donna Luck and Stephanie DeLong and eight rookies : Ursula Horn, Jennifer Ahlborn, Marilu (Mady) Blackburn, Tricia Fleegle, Kara Galvins, Holly Kriebel, Stephanie Phelps, and Ann Shankweiler. Auditions were held on September 10th and two weeks later, the squad was performing at their first game...Parents' Day...in the rain!

The York College Cheerleaders are spreading their spirit and giving recognition to York College beyond the campus. In February, the girls appeared at their first professional sporting event. They performed the halftime show for the Baltimore Blasts at the Baltimore Arena. The Blasts are a member of the Major Indoor Soccer League. This was the major highlight for the season.

Track & Field

The 1990 track and field team officially started practice on February 19th. Twenty of the thirty-two students who came out for the team finished the season in good standing. In addition to the listed meets, the team competed in the Western Maryland Relays, Messiah Invitational, Gallaudet Invitational, Catholic University Invitational, Millersville Metric Invitational and the Mason-Dixon Conference Meet.

Individual highlights include Eric Hue winning four events against Loyola, placing third at the Catholic Univ. Invitational and fourth at the Messiah Invitational. Eric was selected by his teammates as the most valuable track and field performer for the 1990 season. Laura Johns had an outstanding meet at the Gallaudet Invitational, where she placed second in the triple jump and finished sixth in the 800 meter and 1500 meter runs.

For the first time in several years, no one placed in the conference meet. However, this is the largest number of track team members to finish a season in six years and only one graduates this year.

One if by land...Two if by sea--THE FRESHMEN ARE COMING.

Rodney Altemose

Gary Keeney

Sunday, Sept. 3, 1989: After remaining virtually deserted over the summer, York College bustled with activity as incoming freshmen were welcomed onto campus. Their families in tow, the 800 or so freshman had a beautiful day to move in (what!-No Rain?) Starting around 9 a.m., trailers, campers, vans, u-hauls, trucks and cars, crammed with all the necessities began filling YCP's lots. With the help of mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and other assorted relatives of all types and ages, students began unloading and trekking their belongings into their new homes. Amid endless boxes and the ever-popular milk crates, families were seen lugging the collegiate basics - beanbags, radios, tvs, stuffed animals, refrigerators, carpet rolls and cases of soda.

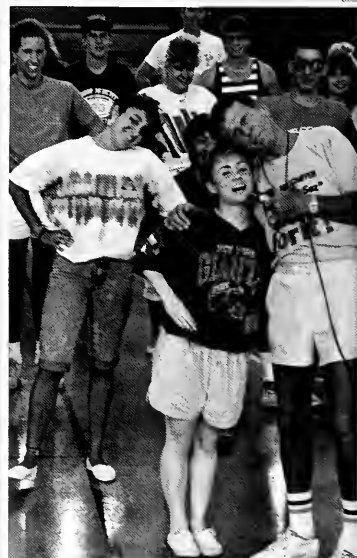

After lugging all that stuff, families got to enjoy a picnic and then leisurely stroll the campus. Parents checked out the technical aspects of campus to insure that their children would be safe while brothers, sisters and friends along for the ride simply checked out college physiques.

As the afternoon drew to a close, everyone realized the hardest part of the day had arrived- saying goodbye. Amid choruses of "call me tomorrow" and "Don't forget to eat all 3 meals a day", parents issued last-minute instructions and tips before heading homeward. Hugs, kisses, tears and smiles were all visible as students and parents prepared to separate. Hard as it may have been to say goodbye, all the students knew what opportunities college-life would offer. And to all those parents - Relax, that freshman is doing just fine. by M.Baum

On September 13, 1989 York College was enlightened by the We Can Make You Laugh Game Show. Some of the highlights of this hilarious evening were when the two brothers entertained us with their "razor-sharp" juggling talents, and let us never forget "Ken and Barbie". There were three lucky contestants who vied for the GRAND prize of, "not five, not ten, not twenty, but twenty five dollars!!!!". Two of the contestants succeeded in not laughing for six minutes. All in all we hope to have another beach ball party in the audience really SOON!!!!

Paul Venier showed the YCP campus that "three heads are better than one" on September 19, 1989. He has appeared on such shows as "The Tonight Show" and HBO. His escapades for the night included mooning the audience, reciting zip codes, and don't forget the ever-popular subject of the evening, James, or should we say, Jay? Still having nightmares about that song? Overall, the "one man comedy tornado" blew us all away!!!

On October 10, 1989 York College of Pennsylvania's new Business Administration Center was dedicated. Many York College students, faculty, staff, and members of the York business area were present for the ceremonies.

Arthur J. Glatfelter, prominent York businessman and chairman of Glatfelter Insurance Group, received an Honorary Doctor of Human Letters Degree. Mr Russell E. Palmer, Dean of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, served as the distinguished keynote speaker.

The Business Administration Center was constructed in order to meet the growing needs the YCP students. The new building opened in September. The 22,000 square foot facility contains 11 classrooms, 16 faculty offices, the York College Academic Computer Center and the Glatfelter Telecommunications Center, a state of the art teleconference facility. Another part of YCP's history to remember.

DRINKING OBSTACLE COURSE

Have you ever seen grown men and women ride tricycles? How about drunk men and women riding tricycles? Well, the York College Community has seen it happen and it was fun to watch, yet there was a serious lesson behind it.

There were 10 daring participants who turned out on a beautiful Sunday afternoon to drink and "drive" in order to show the effects of alcohol. Every time participants did a round on their trikes they had a drink (their specialty) and by the end of the day, boy did we have some sorry drivers!!! by T.Nelson

The dance, given by the Horizon, Spartan, and WVYC radio station, was considered a success by all. Though costumes were not required, many of the attendants were "dressed to kill" anyway. The admission was free, and prizes were awarded to the scariest and most original costumes. Stay tuned --- Halloween Havoc may be an event for many more Halloweens to come!!!!

On Halloween day, the annual Halloween Happening was to be held. However, it was postponed until two days later, due to inclement weather. The event was held on Thursday, November 2, on the Campbell Hall Mall. There were tables sponsored by various organizations, selling candy apples, baked goods, t-shirts, and other various things. All in all, it was a successful day for all who attended, even though the true spirit of Halloween was lost in November.

The 1989 Alumni Phonathon proved once again that hard work pays big dividends. Through eight nights of intensive calling about 55 student callers and alumni volunteers helped set a new record for dollars pledged. The $20,582 pledged by 793 alumni represents a superb effort by everyone who helped make calls. This type of experience can only strengthen students', as well as alumni's, commitment to York College.

Cash prizes were awarded to the three callers who generated the most paid pledges through the end of the year. Chris Banks won first prize, Barbara Bean received second and Ann Shankweiler was third.

York College's Security Days, sponsored by the Student Senate, ran from November 13th through the 15th. McGruff the Crime Dog kicked off the week by appearing outside Campbell Hall with his sidekick, Officer Friendly. That evening in Buechel Lounge an interesting, informative and fast-paced lecture, given by Citizens Against Crime, taught all in attendance that crime can happen to them and what can be done to fight back. The following night Chris Hertig lectured on the growing issue of concern-date rape. Combined with pamphlets and other literature available to the student body, these presentations made Security Days a success.

Bang!! Who shot the sergeant? This was the question to be answered in the Pulitzer Prize and Outer Critics Circle Award winner, "A Soldier's Play", presented to York College On February 6, 1990.

Written by Charles Fuller, "A Soldier's Play" is set in 1944 rural Louisiana. America is in the midst of World War II and the murder of a black platoon sergeant at Louisiana's Fort Neal is under investigation by the Defense Department.

Surprisingly, the inquiry is led by a black officer, Army lawyer Captain Richard Davenport. Arriving at Fort Neal, he walks into a hotbed of racial tensions.

As Davenport skillfully conducts his probe, accepted racial hatreds are stripped away to reveal the true feelings and motives of the suspects. In the end, the truth turns out to be more shattering than the murder itself.

In addition to winning the Pulitzer in 1982, "A Soldier's Play" was named one of the ten best events of the New York theater season.

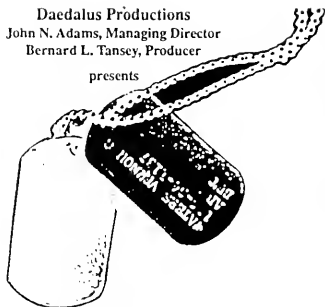

Based on a true story, it gained world acclaim as the basis of the motion picture "A Soldier's Story" starring Howard Rollins.

"A Soldier's Play" comes to York College as one leg of Daedalus Productions of New York's latest coast-to-coast national Tour.

Naomi Tutu, daughter of Nobel Peace Prize winner Desmond Tutu, spoke to York College of PA in conjunction with Black Awareness Month on Tuesday, February 13, 1990. Although stressing that apartheid is still alive in South Africa, Ms. Tutu vowed she will raise her future children in a free South Africa. South African President F.W. de Klerk received praise from Tutu but she admitted there is much more for him to do. Telling the audience she was honored to speak to them, she confessed that she would have preferred to be back home. Since Tutu has been in Europe studying at the London School of Economics for her doctorate and lecturing throughout the United States, she had to watch the release of Nelson Mandela on television. Ms. Tutu's advice to the crowd was to support anti-apartheid changes and not to take the easy way out. She suggested people learn the history of black Americans and blacks throughout the world. Ms. Tutu was perhaps best summed up by Director of Student Activities, Laurie Reed, "she's soft-spoken but very forceful".

Interviewing Meatloaf

If given the chance, what would your message be to today's generation?

"Believe in yourself, as long as it's not against the wall and that makes you happy, and when you know what you want to do, don't give up."

Of all of your releases, which would be your favorite?

"For Crying Out Loud."

Who was your role model as a child?

"Fuzzy Thurston, guard for the Green Bay Packers; Leroy Jardin, linebacker for the Dallas Cowboys; and Bob Lilly, defensive tackle for the Dallas Cowboys."

You are doing an album in April. You appeal to a different generation. Will the album be all old Meatloaf or will there be new Meatloaf mixed in?

"What generation do I appeal to?"

You seem to appeal to an older crowd--the 70's generation.

"Then you find that the younger people also know the lyrics to all the songs. See, there is a reason for all this because the songs that came out in the 60's, people who were young could relate to them. It touches what you are going through. It doesn't appeal to 12 year olds--they don't get it. It has to deal with emotions and growing up. Timeless music-- people can relate to it. It crosses all the language barriers; doesn't make any difference what language you speak or how old you are, you can relate to it."

How do you like acting?

"It's my thing."

Is there any current music that you like?

"I hate rap--I really hate this new hit 'Pump Up The Jam'. It has no melody, no creativity at all. When bands started up in the 60's, everyone had to be totally different from one another."

What is your impression of York College?

"I think it's terrific! The people are intelligent-- it was really great. It was one of the best we have been to."

March 21st Turns Into Open Mike Night

Ten o'clock at night--where's comedian Roger Kabler? Never fear it's the waiters to the rescue! Waiters?? Yes, waiters. The administration and faculty were the Den waiters that evening and they went beyond the call of duty to keep the show on the road. To fill the time, Dr. Khanna went on stage and told jokes laced with his own unique style of humor. Open mike night escalated as various students bravely faced the crowd.

Finally, about a half an hour late, Roger Kabler arrived at York College and rushed on stage. We didn't just hear from Roger Kabler that night but were also entertained by Columbo, Michael Jackson, Robin Williams, Vinnie Barbarino and Jack Nicholson. With YCP members taking the stage, followed by a comedian with many personalities, all who attended were given plenty to laugh about.

John Cougar Mellencamp, James Taylor, Jimmy Buffet, Billy Joel, and Bob Dylan were all at York College on March 27, 1990. Seriously, these artists were brought to life by Chris Brady, a musician from North Carolina. He also performed original hits from his album, "Risk It All" which was released in 1988. He is 28 years old and graduated with an accounting degree from the University of North Carolina in 1983. When asked why he performs in his bare feet he simply replied that it is more comfortable. Unfortunately the audience was smaller than normal, but everyone there witnessed an outstanding mini-concert.

Foreshadowing problems to come, Cerjan commented on the current state of the USSR citing their stagnant economy, underdeveloped social system and ethnic group repression as trouble spots. According to the Maj. Gen., change does not equate with peace and security. He devoted the majority of his speech to Army issues: recent cutbacks, strategy, weaponry and national defense. As he said, "If we never go to war, then I've done my job."

This romantic comedy has a Roman backdrop, set in a street during the early days of the Roman empire. In the play, two young people fall in love only to find that they can't be together. But don't despair, like all fairy tales, this one has a happy ending.

Repeatedly Sadove complained about US complacency. He berated us as a nation for settling for a 3% growth rate and for not caring about foreign aid until it concerns us.

Obviously, Sadove had a genuine attachment to his topic and tried to share some of his life's knowledge and experiences with the audience.

Has This Campus Gone MAD?

Mardi Gras Madness Hits York!

by Michelle Baum & Hope Messick

Anxiously anticipated, the annual Spring Weekend finally arrived at York College on April 20, 21, and 22nd. This year, students were taken to the Mardi Gras among colors of purple, gold and green. Everyone fit in by wearing a rainbow array of beads and masks. In fact, even good-ole John Andrews joined in the festivities.

The weekend kicked off on Friday night with a dance in Friday resembling a New Orleans sidewalk cafe. Following the dance, the madness continued as the Rocky Horror Picture Show was broadcast to a jammed-packed audience. Does anyone want to raise a toast?

Saturday afternoon, under the threat of a thunderstorm, the reggae band First Trumpet performed its limited repertoire as the audience batted beach balls and munched on grilled hot dogs. At the same time, people lined up to have their caricatures drawn. During the concert's intermission, people scrambled all over campus on a scavenger hunt. The big event of the day was Jello Wrestling. Contestants slipped, slid and slammed each other in a sea of cherry and orange gelatin. Late in the day, the Black Student Union presented its yearly fashion show.

With two successful days completed, Sunday appeared under beautiful blue skies and warm sunny temperatures. Campbell Hall Mall was filled with tons of tables and loaded with hoardes of people. Campus organizations sold everything imaginable, from funnel cakes to decorated water bottles to stir-fried beef. Live bands provided the backdrop as people took on the miniature golf course and volleyball matches in TKE's annual volleyball marathon to benefit the Kidney Foundation.

Overall, this year's Spring Weekend was the most successful to date. Although hectic and fast-paced, the weekend provided great entertainment and wonderful memories students will treasure as they depart from YCP. Thanks go out to the Student Senate and the Campus Activities Board for a job well done.

Walli Collins

On April 25th, 1990, Walli Collins, a popular comedian who has appeared on MTV, visited York College. His entire act left the audience hysterical with laughter. Some of the evening's highlights were: Dads having the tendency to sleep in front of the television, women putting on pantyhose and childhood. Thanks Walli for a truly enjoyable night.

Like a swarm of locusts, high school seniors planning to attend York College in the fall descended upon campus for their first orientation on April 25th and May 3rd. Remember your orientation- the talks, the scheduling, the mug shot photo id? With the help of the Peer Advisors, these newest students got a brief taste of what their lives will be like when they begin college in the fall.

“In Your Eyes”

by Hope Messick

“In Your Eyes” was the theme for the 1990 York College Spring Formal. The gala event, decorated with the colors of fuschia and teal, was held at the Dutch Club on April 27th. Streamers, balloons and Mardi Gras masks filled the room as couples glided across the dance floor. Congratulations to the King and Queen, George Trauger and Maria Sirbak. All in all, it was an evening of romance and magic.

President
Robert V. Iosue

May, 1990

Dear YCP Graduates:

We have the desire to keep you here indefinitely, but we must succumb to the larger world that beckons.

While here, you have been recipients of fine teaching and excellent scholarship. You have also been a wonderful addition to a growing college; one that wants you to be proud of the education you received here, and one that is highly recognized as a college made up of excellent professors.

My hope is that your education, both in and out of the classroom, will serve you well. I hope you use it in your job, with your family, and in observing a caring and dedicated attitude in all things.

Be daring, take a risk now and then, do something different once in a while, and do it all as an individual who has a responsibility to others. I know you'll succeed because you had potential when you came here, and you grew a lot during your stay.

Our affection and best wishes go with each and every one of you.

Sincerely,

Robert V. Iosue

Winter Commencement

Two hundred and twenty six students were designated candidates for graduation during York College of Pennsylvania's winter commencement on December 21, 1989. Dr. Dean L. Cheesebrough, an education department professor and president of YCP's Academic Senate, delivered the commencement address. Following tradition, Dr. Cheesebrough was selected for this honor by the graduating class. Robert L. Simpson, noted community affairs activist and executive director of the Crispus Attucks Association, Inc. of York, received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree by the College.

On May 12th, York College's class of 1990 became the school's newest alumni, as 442 students received their degrees in the spring commencement ceremony on the campus mall. This special event represented the culmination of years of learning and growing up.

The college also awarded honorary doctor of humane letters degrees to keynote speaker Kenneth L. Adelman and to John C. Schmidt, president of the York Bank and Trust Co. and former chairman of YCP's board of trustees.

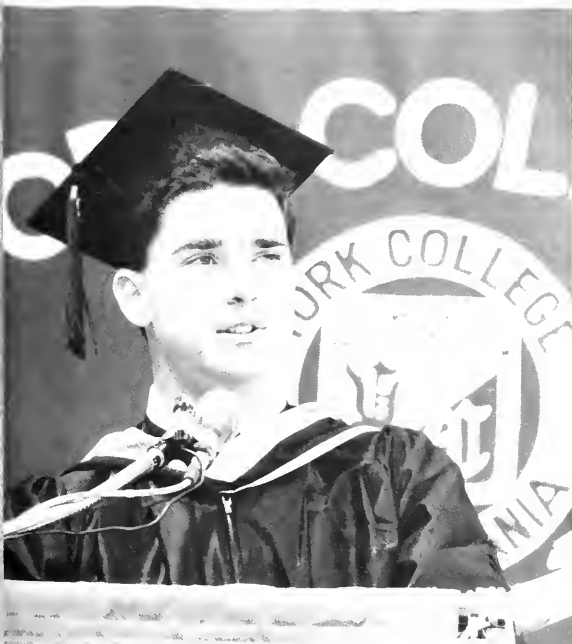

"It was a beautiful graduation," said college president Robert V. Iosue. "The graduates showed an unusual exuberance." In his welcoming address, Iosue advised the graduates not to measure their success by the paychecks they will command. He told graduates to measure success by "the contentment it brings you, and the good you bring to your friends, your family and your community."

Adelman, former director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency under President Reagan, told them to build on their accomplishments at York. They should be persistent in the face of failure, be open and curious in the pursuit of their interests, and be grateful for the opportunities they have been given in life.

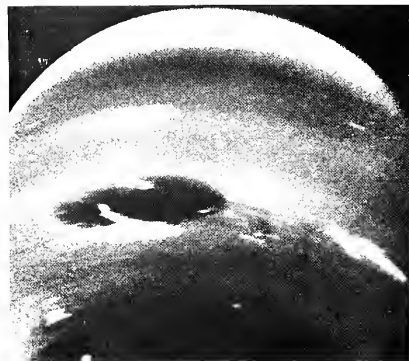

The school awarded 11 master of business administration degrees, 36 bachelor of arts, and 338 bachelor of science, 2 associate of arts and 55 associate of science degrees at its ceremony.

Volumes of information and thousands of photos were sent back to Earth.

Hurricane Hugo swept through the Caribbean and slowly made its way to the coast of the United States. It hit Charleston, South Carolina where the 135 mph winds caused billions of dollars in damage.

Fine Young Cannibals may have had a tough time getting a recording contract when they first started out, but it was worth waiting for. The trio, all from Birmingham, England, are from left to right, Dave Steele, Roland Gift and Andy Cox.

Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev instituted some liberal reforms in Russia and strengthened ties between his government and the United States.

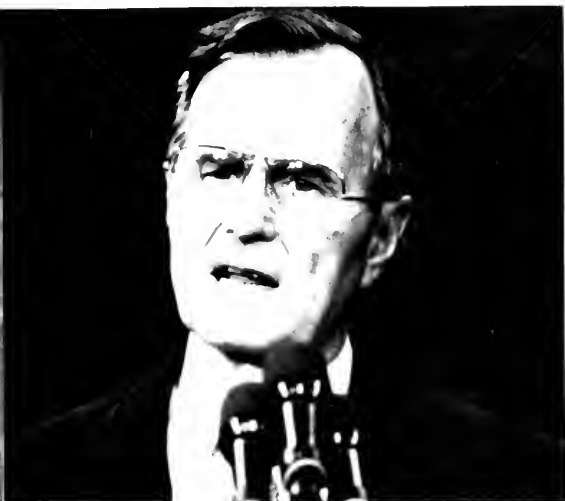

Border guards stand atop the Berlin Wall, awaiting reaction to the opening of East-West German borders on Friday afternoon November 10, 1989. There was great jubilation after the opening, with thousands of East Germans moving into the West after all border crossing points were opened. In the background is the Brandenburg Gate.

Cincinnati Reds manager Pete Rose, one of the greatest players in the history of baseball, was banned for life from the game because of gambling. The baseball commissioner found that Rose bet on his own team.

Dan Quayle, the man chosen by George Bush as his running mate, also finished his first year as vice-president of the United States.

The comic book hero Batman was the movie hit of the year, producing over $200 million in revenue. Michael Keaton played Bruce Wayne, a.k.a. Batman and Jack Nicholson starred as the Joker.

Bobby Brown has arrived. He split from the New Edition in 1987 and developed a distinctive style that made his first album an immediate hit.

Political problems in the Middle East continued this year. Problems between Arabs and Israelis continued and the factions within the Arab population made Beirut a constant war zone.

The Rolling Stones proved they still have what it takes. Mick Jagger and the group launched a 36-city tour in September that proved to be an extravaganza in typical Stones fashion.

Milli Vanilli hit the US with their first two singles on top of the charts. Pictured are: Fab Morvan, left who grew up in France, and Rob Pilatus who is from Germany.

Roseanne Barr rose from a cult comedian to a mainstream television megastar as a wise-cracking mother in the series Roseanne. John Goodman plays her husband in this show about a middle-class family.

Arsenio Hall, star of "Coming to America", rose in popularity with his own syndicated late night talk show.

Paula Abdul got her start teaching Duran Duran and others to dance and is now giving her former students a run for their money.

Left: In late May and early June, tens of thousands of Chinese pro-democracy protesters gathered in Tiananmen Square in Beijing to seek political change-but it ended in a massacre. Government soldiers, using tanks and automatic weapons, ended the protest, killing and wounding thousands.

Well- We did it!!! This is truly a new Horizon!

There are many people deserving thanks for this edition's success. First and most obviously is my staff. Without them, this book would not have been possible. All the section heads and my assistant editor, Corey, deserve extra thanks.

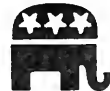

Many people outside the Horizon yearbook need to be acknowledged: Chris Reilly- for loaning photos and supplying copy just when we needed them Rodney Altemose- for trusting us with his photos when we were in a jam and for willingly helping us and answering our numerous questions Jutta Creager- we cannot thank you enough for donating the beautiful quilt; your generosity is greatly appreciated Dr. Iosue- for taking personal time out to lend a hand Mr. Thomas Norris- a simple thanks will suffice Dr. Wessley- for steering us in the right direction concerning Alpha Chi and for understanding why I couldn't always attend your committee Student Senate- thanks in general for being supportive as the Horizon worked with the mess we were left The Horizon Misfits- Bryan, Dominic, Rich, Mark, Daryle, Eric, Rik, Chad and Jon- way to go! Straight to the top and good sportsmen too I'm proud of you guys!

What an unbelievable year! The Horizon has advanced further in this past year than in all of its history. Thanks again to everyone involved in our success.

Looking forward to next year,

Brian Lefever 1969-1990

Best Said By A Friend...

Though Brian was with us for only a short time, the quality of his life assures us that he did not die unfulfilled. The time he gave us was precious. As my friend, he offered his time, his heart and his soul. I couldn't have asked for or ever expected more.

Most of us at York College never had the chance to know Brian well, but he loved us all just the same. That's the kind of person he was. Caring and giving; especially of his time and talents. Brian was passionate and full of a youthful exuberance that made life exciting for his family and friends.

In his daily walk through life, Brian showed a courage and determination in all his endeavors. And though he failed sometimes, he showed a character that reflected a healthy personal pride and a reverence for God and His precious gift of life. Not a day goes by that I don't miss Brian, but I'm richer for having loved him and York College is richer for being able to call him one of us. And as sure as we are empty because of his loss, heaven is richer because of it. I know that I speak for all of the York College community when I say, "Thanks, Brian. We love you."
